FBS Property Tax Abatement's President
To Lead Roundtable At ICSC 2010 Open-Air Conference

Miami, FL – FBS Property Tax Abatement LLC announced that Mitchell A. Feldman President of the Bilzin Sumberg subsidiary, will be leading a roundtable discussion at the International Council of Shopping Centers' (ICSC) 2010 Open-Air Conference. The conference, which will be held at The Ritz-Carlton Grande Lakes in Orlando, Florida on March 10-12th, will focus on "The New Normal: The Information, Insights, and Contacts to Adapt, Survive and Prosper in Today's Shopping Center Environment."

Mr. Feldman has more than 17 years of successful experience appealing property values and reducing property taxes, and has personally attended thousands of hearings representing over billions of dollars of property in the tax abatement process. With a multi-discipline background in real estate and corporate law, valuation, foreclosure and finance, he is uniquely positioned to deftly handle a variety of property-tax related matters.

ICSC is the global trade association of the shopping center industry, whose principal aims are to advance the development of the shopping center industry and to establish the individual shopping center as a major institution in the community. ICSC 60,000 members in the U.S., Canada and more than 80 other countries, and links with more than 25 national and regional shopping center councils throughout the world.
